1. Collaboration and leadership are traits that your future employers will be looking for. Describe a time when you had to collaborate to accomplish something, be it for school or outside of school, or a time when you were put in a leadership role. Describe yourself as a collaborator or as a leader.
2. Your university years are transformative, helping you become the person you wish to be, and classes are only part of what you spend your time doing. What do you do in your non-student time (i.e. outside of attending and studying for classes)? How will these activities prepare you for life after Penn State?
